envelope. The envelope may be marked "to be opened by authorized passport agent only" and "hand carry". The "sealed envelope" should be returned to you in order to send it to IAG, Inc.

The Federal Government has established a detailed set of rules that specify exactly how this procedure must occur. The sealed envelope process is a way for a government official to verify your identity without requiring that you appear in person at a Passport Agency. Your application materials will be officially sealed into an envelope by the Courthouse or Post Office. IAG will carry this unopened envelope to the Passport Agency on your behalf to expedite issuance of the passport. The law allows that you have a right to have a representative carry this envelope to a Passport Agency as long as you have an urgent need for a passport.

- Do NOT use pencil or red pen to complete forms
- Do NOT seal the payment to IAG AND DO NOT seal the IAG Customer Order Form
